Team USA at Sports Academy June 24 1-4 PM

HINSDALE, Mass. (June, 2006) (Hinsdale, Mass.) Team USA, the “highest level of collegiate athletes in the country” according to David Perkins Director of Marketing and Licensing for Team USA will be at the Dan Duquette Sports Academy on Saturday June 24 from 1-4 PM as they prepare for their international schedule. None of the players on this year’s team are eligible for the draft this June, but will be eligible for the 2007 draft. On average, 8-12 players from Team USA are drafted in the first round of the Major League Baseball draft, said Perkins.” Almost all of our guys are picked up in the draft at some point.”

Fans can meet the players and coaches of Team USA after practice from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, June 24th on the main diamond at the Duquette Sports Academy in Hinsdale.

“We invite families to tour the Sports Academy, watch Team USA workout, and then stay to meet the players and staff at 4 p.m.” said Director Kent Qualls. Fans will be able to purchase tickets for the Sunday Team USA at Wahconah Park and as an added bonus if families register for our summer programs at the Sports Academy in baseball, softball, basketball, soccer, football and conditioning they will also receive a season tickets to see the Pittsfield Dukes of the NECBL.

Team USA will travel to Pittsfield with a 36-man roster, highlighted by four returning players from last years’ squad. Sophomores J.P. Arencibia (Tennessee), Sean Doolittle (UVA), David Price (Vanderbilt) return for a second season with the team. Virginia’s Doolittle was the 2006 ACC Player of the Year. He was 10-1 with a 1.90 ERA on the mound, and also batted .318 with 52 RBI.

Registration for all tournaments and/or camp sessions is available at www.DuquetteSports.com. For more information, contact our Camp Director Kent Qualls at 617-645-1257 or email Kent@DuquetteSports.com.
